examines the pastoral and theological implications of north american small christian community programs the internationally growing cursillo movement or short course in christianity founded in 1944 by spanish catholic lay practitioners has become popular among american catholics and protestants alike this lay led weekend experience helps participants recommit to and live their faith emphasizing how american christians have privileged the individual religious experience and downplayed denominational and theological differences in favor of a common identity as renewed people of faith kristy nabhan warren focuses on cursillistas those who have completed a cursillo weekend to show how their experiences are a touchstone for understanding these trends in post 1960s american christianity drawing on extensive ethnographic fieldwork as well as historical research nabhan warren shows the importance of latino catholics in the spread of the cursillo movement cursillistas stories she argues guide us toward a new understanding of contemporary christian identities inside and outside u s borders and of the importance of globalizing american religious boundaries

how can we transmit a living personal catholic faith to future generations by coming to know jesus christ and following him as his disciples as we emerge from a pandemic into a post christian world these are times of immense challenge and enormous opportunity for the catholic church in the united states consider these statistics fully 10 percent of all adults in america are ex catholics nearly three quarters of young catholics think that they could be a good catholic without going to mass every sunday catholic marriages have declined by almost two thirds since 1969 even as the number of catholics in the united states has grown significantly only one third of catholics believe that the bread and wine actually become the body and blood of jesus christ at the consecration during mass if the church is to reverse these trends the evangelizers must first be evangelized in other words catholics in the pew must make a conscious choice to know and follow jesus before they can draw others to him ten years after it was first published forming intentional disciples is still helping scores of church leaders parish staff and all catholics transform parish life from within world renowned author and speaker sherry weddell leads you through the steps that will help catholics enter more deeply into a relationship with god and the river of apostolic creativity charisms and vocation that flow from that relationship for the sake of the church and the world

in this in depth study of eight diverse mainline protestant congregations anthropologist fredric roberts finds that when local congregations are evaluated by spiritual and religious standards instead of corporate or pop culture based values there remains much to celebrate roberts recommends that congregations work to discover their own uniqueness and to build upon the strength that already exist among its own members be not afraid is a guide to help congregations rediscover their true calling to be nurturing faith communities committed to spreading the good news and making disciples the calling to parish ministry involves a journey leading through lowland thickets and high plateau vistas it is a vocation not for weak spirits the parish presents general challenges rather than specialist endeavors so wearing one hat after another the pastor may speak from the pulpit join a team processing a current social concern visit the intensive care hospital unit and offer counsel at birth marriage or death maybe all in one day clergy and non ordained alike will find that parish the thought provides a closeup insight into this ministry telling the truth about the defeats and victories experienced over the course of forty years in the parish this memoir spends little time in navel gazing rather the author explores the humor conflicts ventures and achievements that rise in his memory the reader will detect a commitment to priestly and prophetic ministry one that seeks to comfort the distressed and to nudge the comfortable out of apathy encompassing the personal and public dimensions of the faith all this as an adventure following the pioneer jesus the christ the selections from this forthcoming book are elegantly written and spiritually profound in a way that effectively synthesizes a convincing true to life immediate concreteness of real persons in real situations of spiritual significance on the one hand with the essential christian realities of guilt confession forgiveness redemption humility humor joy hope and a continuous sense of god's living presence in the heart on the other russell pannier professor william mitchell college of law st paul minnesota david bowman's pastoral recollections in parish the thought is a socratic exercise in an examined life it is a collection of stories that stand on their own but within which lie deeper truths that david has had both the wit and wisdom to mine insightful sensitive but most of all searching an excellent example of a well lived life i recommend it highly thomas e smith pastor presbyterian chapel of the lakes adjunct instructor trine university bowman's approach to ministry was to look directly at current moral and ethical issues and using scripture and his own wisdom to deal publicly and personally with the issues encouraging community of dialogue dave's voice then showed wisdom insight and patience and those qualities persist in this engaging new book i commend it to thoughtful readers w james halfaker former conference minister for the united church of christ in washington and north idaho david bowman's sketches and recollections each summon up a unique moment and place with crystal clarity yet the characters moods and feelings are universal his life in active ministry glosses on social protest race ecumenicism and alexander calder's sculpture and at the same time the delicateness of person to person pastoral relationships shine through with the same humanity and emotion as the largest historical trends this memoir is a joy to read and an inspiration of lived faith joe kanofsky rabbi toronto canada the rev david b bowman phd lives in semi retirement in saratoga california he is the author of a previous book saints along the way women and men who have influenced my life his parish ministry following doctoral studies at glasgow university scotland has spanned the continent from new york to california including michigan washington state iowa indiana and ohio such a journey led a friend to call him a wanderer in the earth life is fragile handle with prayer whether we realize it or not our every day lives are filled with prayerful moments for some this is a conscious effort but too often prayer is a one sided monologue at god when we don't give god the opportunity to speak to us then our friendship with christ suffers so ask yourself if i am not listening to god to whom am i listening prayer is about building and deepening our relationship with christ as we nurture this friendship we find that prayer is also about being changed from within which allows us to grow closer to jesus prayer is a relationship is a workbook that allows you to explore different ways of praying using the giving your prayer wings exercises how is your prayer life is it all you want or hope it can be christ is calling are you listening priestly ministry in the church of england needs a radical rethink george herbert died in 1633 his legacy continues his poems are read and sung and his parish ministry remains the model for the church of england s understanding of how and where and why its priests should minister but there is a problem the memory of herbert celebrated by the church is an inaccurate one and in its inaccuracy is unfair on herbert himself and his successors in the ordained ministry this is a book of the long view it sets out to assess realistically the context of herbert s life and to explore the difficulties of parish life today by examining the status and role of parish clergy since herbert s time and today it draws on the work of historians social anthropologists psychologists and theologians and presents their ideas in a readable and passionate style it argues that the future strength of parochial ministry will be found in a recovery of historic renewed understandings of priestly ministry and concludes by outlining more sustainable patterns of practice for the future in a climate of uncertainty for the future of the church it will be an encouragement for priest and people and welcomed by both a struggle for holy ground results from thirty five interviews with participants in the 1989 consolidations of then parishes in chicago s englewood and two parishes from the san francisco consolidations after its 1989 earthquake it explores the roles of ritual and pastoral care in this sometimes highly conflicted situation through the lens of trauma and reconciliation it proposes a series of new rites group reconciliation atonement lament leave taking memorial and inauguration based on the experience of people most impacted by parish restructurings
